GRANT COUNTY ROLLING STONES GEM AND MINERAL SOCIETY

PARTICIPANT RELEASE OF LIABILITY

I_____, understand that field trips, engaging in lapidary activities and other events sponsored or held by the Society are potentially dangerous, involve the risk* of serious injury, property damages, property loss and/or death and could result in the participant Member (guest) incurring indirect or consequential costs or damages, such as medical costs. The participant Member hereby releases and agrees to hold harmless Grant County Rolling Stones Gem and Mineral Society, Inc., its employees, representatives, and agents including other volunteer Members from liability for any and all costs, expenses, losses and damages incurred by the participant Member (or guest.) Further, participant Member (guest) agrees to indemnify the Society for any and all costs and expenses it may incur including court costs and attorney fees arising from any participant Members' (guest's) claim of bodily injury, death or property damage.

The participant Member (guest) acknowledges that this Release of Liability has been freely, and voluntarily entered into without any inducement, assurance or guarantee. It is the participant Member's (guest's) intent that this instrument acts as a completed and unconditional release of liability to the full extent allowed by law.

*Unpredictable and dangerous environmental conditions/hazards including but not limited to: snow, rain, wind, very cold/very hot temperatures, lightning, altitude, loose rocks, falling rocks, avalanche, flash flood, river hazards, mud slides, mud, ice, and other slippery conditions; including but not limited to: diamond saws, moving grinding wheels and belts, buffing wheels, cutting oil, hot wax, contaminated water, dust, fumes.

If the participant is a minor (under the age of 18 years) this form must be acknowledged and signed by the minor's parent or legal guardian prior to participating in any Society activity.
